Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A full moon was rising. It soon would be night. He needed some rest but he had to hold tight. He clung to his branch, not much more than a leaf And he tried and he tried and he tried not to sleep. Have you had a long day at work? Do you want something stimulating that will allow you to get away at the same time? Just let yourself go into the world of Little Mouse and enjoy his adventures and that of his clan as you are drawn ever more into his world through the rhyme and the pictures in your imagination. Beginning with what would first appear to be a simple children s story you are introduced to Little Mouse on the day after Christmas. But don t let the age old rhyme fool you, there is much more to this story than you might believe. Read as a bedtime story you will discover his world while you are discovering your own and enjoy a tale which is both entertaining and enlightening. A story for the ages for all ages. Read it aloud or read it quietly for yourself. I think you will agree, this is truly a remarkable story.
