OFFICIATING BASKETBALL (OFFICIATING SPORT BOOKS)

Human Kinetics, 2005. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: What does it take to be a successful referee? "Officiating Basketball, Officiating Football, Officiating Soccer, and "Officiating Wrestling will help officials of these sports ensure they're in the right place at the right time to make the right call. Written for new and veteran officials alike, these "Officiating Sport books serve as method texts for the National Federation of State High School Associations' (NFHS) Officials Education Program. Readers will learn the ground rules for what's expected of them as officials and the pre- and post-play procedures of their respective sports. Each book features several chapters devoted to officiating mechanics, supported by approximately 100 photos and illustrations on proper positioning and signals. Also included are real-life cases on rules application that will challenge readers to make the correct calls in game situations. "Officiating Sport books are organized to be quick references and studies. Based on methods and mechanics devised and endorsed by the NFHS, these resources serve as texts for "NFHS Officiating Sport Methods online courses, developed and delivered by the American Sport Education Program (ASEP).
