

Fortitude: Without Acknowledgment (Paperback)

By Daniel Jaramillo

Tate Publishing Enterprises, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 206 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Fortitude: Without Acknowledgment is more than a story of police corruption and job ethics, but a tale of will, character and perseverance. A David and Goliath story of a detective that has to go up against a corrupt sheriff; but first he has to achieve a private victory and tell the truth and be honorable to the core values of his profession. This story of moral courage is colored from an athlete's view of a winning mindset. The detective says that he got hold of the winning edge while training for the ironman triathlon. It gave him the moral, mental and physical momentum to endure the trial and tribulations of his agency during a fragmented six year period of corruption. Detective Jaramillo believes that our internal strength and mental toughness will emerge under pressure when we have the belief that the almighty God has confidence in us. The detective says the scandal did more than challenge his self-esteem and call into question his integrity in regards to his profession, but also tested his courage to...
