Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Notes of a Journey: From Kasveen to Hamadan Across the Karagan Country In June and July of this year, being in Persia on leave, it occurred to me that I might test my capacity to get along, unaided, among the people, and at the same time be of some small service in another direction by travelling across one of the still numerous tracts of the country, which are blank in the latest and best maps (Kiepert's and Walker's) and which no European had so far traversed. As Colonel Ross, the Resident in the Persian Gulf, remarks in one of his reports: There are at the present extensive tracts and districts, the extent, capacity, and even position of which are but vaguely known at the seat of Government. Khorassan and the north-east was closed to me, unless I could get leave to return overland to India through Afghanistan or Beloochistan, and the latter country was closed in July and August owing to intense heat. The south-east an officer was at the time engaged in...
