Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Ontario as a Home for the British Tenant Farmer Who Desires to Become His Own Landlord The Dominion of Canada offers to the surplus population of the British Isles ample opportunities for the betterment of their condition in various walks of enterprise and industry, and its several Provinces possess diverse attractions as well as many features in common. When, therefore, the intending emigrant has decided to make his future home in Canada, the question arises as to which locality within its vast domain he should betake himself. The choice depends upon so many contingencies that each one must determine it according to his own circumstances and predilections; but the facts set forth in the following pages prove that for the tenant farmers, farm labourers and all who desire to devote themselves to agricultural industry, and transfer their energies and (those who have it) their capital to the New World, there are many special advantages offered by the Province of Ontario. In this Province substantial wealth, or a reasonable competency, is within the reach of every...
