I just don t love you anymore and I m sorry to have to say it, but I don t know that I ever loved you. Frank s wife s words hurt him terribly. After being married for five good years, she suddenly loses interest in making love to him and asks for divorce. What hurts as well is that she has found someone else, and in his pain, he throws her out. He files for divorce and moves on with his life - or tried to. He dates women but doesn t find the right girl. For three years they have no communication. One day, a friend of Frank helps him join a gangbang, where he meets Norm, whose house is where the party is. Frank is surprised to see that the girl is Kathy, who is shocked as well to see Frank there. Kathy wants him to take her back into his life. But Frank says no. Her reasons for leaving still haunted him. He can t give her another chance, can he? Warning: NOT FOR THE FAINT OF HEARTS.
