The arrangements are all for first-class travel: best steamers, finest hotels, and first-class or palace cars on railways. The charges are very moderate, and include all necessary expenses. Mr. de Potter s plans for the coming summer may be learned from his prospectus published in his illustrated magazine, the Old World And European Guide, an interesting work on travel and study abroad. Mr. de Potter, being a member of some of the leading learned societies in Europe, has, in our estimation, by that fact alone, unique advantages for showing intelligently places of interest to students of history, art and archaeology, and obtains admission to many places where other parties and single travelers do not. --Editorial.
