Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts in the United States Senate, January 5, 1904 The Senate having under consideration Senate resolution No. 66, submitted by Mr. Morgan December 18, 1903, that neither the President, nor the President and the Senate, as the treaty-making power of the United States, has the lawful power to wage or declare war against any foreign power without the consent of Congress, when such country is at peace with the United States, etc. - Mr. Lodge said; Mr. President, there is now pending before the Committee on Foreign Relations a treaty with the Republic of Panama. I have no intention of discussing that treaty or its terms. It would be manifestly improper for me to do so, because the terms and provisions of that treaty must be the subject of discussion in executive session. But the events, sir, which lead to the making of that treaty are entirely public. They have been made the subject of much discussion here already and of much wider discussion in the press...
