The said section was as follows: Section 3232. Municipal corporations shall have power to make and publish from time to time, by-laws, or ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of the State, for carrying into effect or discharging the powers or duties conferred by the provisions of this Act; and it is hereby made the duty of the municipal corporation to publish such by-laws and ordinances, as shall be necessary to secure such corporations and their inhabitants against injuries by fire, thieves, robbers, burglars and other persons violating the public peace; for the suppression of riots and gambling, and indecent and disorderly conduct; for the punishment of all lewd and lascivious behavior in the streets and other places, and they shall have power to make and publish such by-laws and ordinances, not inconsistent with the laws of this State, as to them shall seem necessary to provide for the safety, preserve the health, promote the prosperity and improve the morals, order, comfort and convenience of such corporations and the inhabitants thereof. . Though vagrancy is not expressly mentioned it comes within the purview of the Statute, for it is an evil as detrimental to the good order and well being of the community as any other within the power and discipline of the corporation, and there can be no question that the ordinance was authorized by the Statute. Dill on Mrznic. U012, section 334; St. Louziz v. Bentz. 11 310. ,...
