Roberts: Late Senator From the Twelfth District of Pennsylvania In the Senate, Tuesday, March 16, 1909. Afternoon Session. Pursuant to adjournment, the Senate was called to order at four o'clock post meridian, Mr. Sproul in the chair. Prayer. Prayer was offered by Reverend J. Wesley Sullivan, Chaplain of the Senate, as follows: O, Lord, we come to praise Thee at this time for the great value of life and for the life that Thou dost give unto each one of us, for Thou art the creator and giver of all life; and yet we realize that it is not all of life to live and yet of death to die, but beyond is the judgment and we must come unto Thy presence, we must render an account to Thee of our stewardship; the time when friends cannot follow us or support us, but when we must stand alone in Thy presence as the work and the creation of Thy hand. Thou dost admonish each one of us that we should set our house in order, that sooner or later we shall die and not live. We may at times realize our strength and we forget that we must die, but when we look upon the right hand and upon the left, we see loved ones, friends and companions leaving us and going down into the dark valley of the shadow of death and we are reminded that sooner or later this shall be our journey.
