Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Wedge of Gold The splendor of the world is due to mining and to the perfectness of man s ability to work the minerals which the mines supply. The fields of the world give men food; with food furnished, a few souls turn to the contemplation of higher things; but no grand civilization ever came to an agricultural people until their intellects were quickened by something beyond their usual occupation. How man first emerged from utter barbarism is a story that is lost, but when history first began to pick up the threads of events and to weave them into a record, the loom upon which the record was woven was made of gold. One of the rivers that flowed through Eden also compassed the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; and the gold of that land is good. Tubal Cain was an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron. Abraham and Jacob bought fields with money, and when Pharaoh sought to make Joseph next in power to himself, he took the ring from his finger and put it upon Joseph s finger; and he put a chain of gold about Joseph s neck.
